“A Dream or a Goal?” Did your Goal result in a Touchdown?

Sharonville, Ohio: “A dream masquerades as a goal,” states Kendall Wright quite emphatically. “It has no structure or form. Creating positive results starts with a positive expectation. Researchers confirm that positive expectations contribute to positive results.”

Come listen and learn from Kendall as he takes us through the journey of how to actualize positive thinking and take useful actions to improve your personal and professional life. The highlights of his remarkable program include:

- ✓ The Escalation Template
- ✓ Physical And Psychological Impact Of Thoughts
- ✓ Action Is The Vaccination Against Regret

“Defining well thought out goals is critical to business success,” says Chamber President Rich Arnold. “And Kendall is the rare leader who can show us the way”, continues Arnold. “It doesn’t matter if you are the owner, the office worker, sales or customer service rep, we all face difficulties in goal setting and then successfully reaching them.” Here’s a chance to learn how! I promise that you will find Kendall and his message to be inspiring, commanding, dynamic, and motivating. See you there!
